Eczema is Not a Blood Disease

For this reason internal treatment is the only cure.

Experience with the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment will soon convince you that this remedy is the only cure for the skin and not of the blood.

The following is a true story of the cure brought about by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment after the patient has become tired of taking internal medicine with no apparent result.

Apply Dr. Chase's Ointment and it is not long until there is relief from the dreadful itching and a beginning of the process of healing up the skin. When you have tested this soothing, healing ointment you will wonder why you ever wanted time to wait for internal treatment for eczema.

Mr. A. B. Macdonald, an attorney, writes: "I had itching eczema on my face for over five years and tried many remedies and several doctors."

ST. ITUS DANCE

A Striking Example of its Cure by The Tonic Treatment.

St. Vitus dance is the commonest form of nerve trouble which afflicts children, leading to a particularly distressing demand made on the body by growth and development, and there is the strain caused by study. It is when these demands become so great that they imperil the child's health, the nerves fail to receive their full supply of nourishment, that the nerve ability which leads to St. Vitus dance.

Remarkable success of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in curing St. Vitus dance should lead parents to give their children this great blood-building medicine at the first signs of the disease. Fair, fat, lean, lusty, patient, restlessness and nervousness.

When the blood and nerves are failing to receive their full supply of nourishment, the child's health is in danger. When the blood and nerves are failing to receive their full supply of nourishment, the child's health is in danger.

SCOTLAND YARD.

He Council of Scotland is a Thing Dressed by Red-Clad.

In the early, rather grim, red-clad building which is the medieval fortress, dominates the Thames, within whose shadow of the London Bridge, there is a large, busy-furnished room, which holds some secret that may other to the world.

It was opened by the great and complex detective system, which controls the current of the world over for the discovery of crime; and it is in this secret chamber that the mysterious Council of Seven held their meetings to reveal the tangled skein of tragedy.

If walls could speak, the walls of this room could unfold stories of romance, tragedy, and mystery such as could drive the writers of fiction to despair; for there is no form of crime which has not been detected and laid bare there in all its ghastly and naked hideousness. But walls are dumbly silent, and it is from this secret Council, who recognize that silence is one of their most powerful of weapons.

This Council has not long been in existence, which is a practical one known to the outside world. It is only a short time since it occurred to the Council of Seven that the solution of some problem of crime, which had been baffling the body of their cleverest detectives, would be solved by the presence of a body of men, who were not only men of crime and crime, but also men of crime and crime.

The body of men, who were not only men of crime and crime, but also men of crime and crime, was the Council of Seven. It was the Council of Seven, who were not only men of crime and crime, but also men of crime and crime.

The Council of Seven, who were not only men of crime and crime, but also men of crime and crime, was the Council of Seven. It was the Council of Seven, who were not only men of crime and crime, but also men of crime and crime.

R. G. Taylor has purchased A. J. Robertson's interest in the firm of Robertson & Taylor and will hereafter conduct the affairs of the firm.

Kenneth Macdonald severely hurt the head of his left foot on Friday last while playing football and several days confined with crutches since that time. Fortunately the hurt is not a serious one although it is painful.

Harry Macquhart, the contractor to have erected a luncheonette with ground dimensions of 19 by 28 feet, in the rear of his residence on Fourth avenue. It is the intention to also build a large barn in the rear of the luncheonette.

J. Hennessey is erecting a 14 by 18 foot house on the north side of the avenue near Second street. He will move there for a family residence during the winter and will move it to the corner at the rear of the house in the spring.

W. A. Caldwell received a telegram on Wednesday last, stating that Royal had won the freighting of a mile race at Cranbrook on Tuesday, beating Miller and other fast equines. Royal is owned by W. A. Caldwell and is a speedy napper.

R. P. Smith, of Emerson's ranch, who has been in town for a couple of days visiting friends, left for Monday for the ranch. He reports that a band of Cross Indians observed several excreta on a mountain, dug down and killed a fat bison. The Indians went after the wolves and succeeded in shooting two of them. The cattlemen and the province will pay the Indians bounty for the wolves and they will be rewarded for killing them.

H. W. Patin is at present engaged in cutting 400 acres of hay on his farm east of here. A few weeks ago he cut the oats in this field for the purpose of breaking them. Since then there has been much rain and this has caused a second growth which he is now cutting for hay. It is a remarkable occurrence to cut oats and hay in the same field in one season. The results achieved on the rich soil of Stony Alberta is a constant source of surprise to agriculturists.

Police for the long-distance telephone line arrived here several days ago and during the week were being delivered between here and Crowfoot. The line of building the line between here and Oldham has been in progress for over a month and it should not long before it will be extended to Bassano. The people of Crowfoot have been in communication for several days past. It will be a great convenience for the people here to have telegraphic communication with many neighboring towns, as well as the larger cities like Calgary, Edmonton and Lethbridge.

The Riverside Lumber Co. has just cut the timber for three large warehouses to James, Macdonald & Co. One of the warehouses is to be built at the junction and it will have ground dimensions of 100 by 100 feet and its construction will consume 30,000 feet of lumber. A second warehouse of similar size is to be built at Brooks and the third warehouse will be built at the junction. In F. Porcetti, of the well known team of the line at Crowfoot & Oldham, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Calgary, Arizona and elsewhere returned to Crowfoot yesterday. Mr. Porcetti looks well and it is evident that his vacation benefited him. Mr. Porcetti reports that he observed everywhere that he visited, and particularly in the older towns, material progress and advancement, but it is still the opinion that there is a good deal to be best of them, and is looking to the future with confidence in the direction of general growth and prosperity.

D. O. Halliwell was in town on Monday from his place south of the Bow river. He reports that the entire district is nearly all engaged in plowing and this season the plowing is a large area than year. So far, he says, there has been no frost in that section. The potato vines are set, matured, and are in a flourishing condition and will make a large yield. The grain continues to grow and feed for stock is plentiful. Everyone in that section is looking hopefully forward to next year, as they believe there will be bumper crops, owing to the way the ground has been watered.

The W. Shook left today Friday for section 10, township 10, range 11, two miles south of Crowfoot, for the purpose of disinterring the body of Greenham Hoffman, who was buried on August 14, there. He will return on Monday in time to ship the body to the W. Shook. It is the intention of O. Shook, grandfather of the child, to make the removal of the remains, as the child is presumed to have died from the effects of diphtheria. It was necessary that an authorized undertaker be secured to remove the body from the grave so that it may be properly disinterred and that there might be no chance of infecting others with the dread disease.

Miss Elsie Chapple left today, Friday, for Calgary, where she will take a course for the purpose of becoming a trained nurse. Miss Chapple was the first young lady to arrive in this place, and she is a large number of friends with her every wish and amiable disposition and her departure was much regretted.

RETURNED FROM COAST

Charlie Harris says that he has come back to Alberta a day

Mr. and Mrs. C. Harris returned on Monday from a six weeks' visit to Vancouver. They left with the intention of remaining all winter, but the rain and dampness had a depressing effect on them after a long residence in sunny Alberta and so they returned and are greatly pleased to be home again. "Alberta," said Mr. Harris, "is one of the best places to live in that can be found, and while I was away I visited no place that I liked as well as I do here. When I came from here I visited Tacoma, Seattle and other places that we hear much about. Give me Bassano for mine, as I intend to stay here for the balance of my life. It suits me perfectly."

"Vancouver is growing and booming at a great rate, but they have got property up so high there that it is useless to try with the idea of making quick profits as they have discounted the future on their current market that it will take quite a while to catch up. Vancouver, however, continues to grow rapidly and in time is certain to become one of the largest cities on the Pacific coast. The broad prairie, the vast acres of fertile land waiting for the plow and the sun rays of good dirt are sure what I was hoping for all the time I was in cloudy and rainy Vancouver. Rain, dampness, moss and endless forests may suit some people, but they have no charm for your Uncle Charlie," concluded Mr. Harris.

THE BIG SCHOOL NEXT

H. Buckingham, secretary of the board of school trustees, on Friday received a letter from the provincial board of education stating that the board had given the trustees of the local district permission to borrow the sum of $15,000 for the purpose of erecting and equipping a large schoolhouse. The trustees state that the school-house will be at once erected. They desire to have the roof closed in before the cold-weather begins.

Miss R. A. Wilson, of Lethbridge, will have on display in the Bassano Trading Co. store a full range of smart up-to-date Millinery for Friday and Saturday, September 20th and 21st. This will give the Ladies and Children of Bassano an opportunity to be enticed in the newest shades and shapes in autumn. Hats, Handwear. Prices suitable to all.

Bishop Puckham, of the Anglican Church, arrived here on Tuesday for the purpose of being present at the building of the Anglican church. He was entertained on Tuesday afternoon by the members of the Women's Auxiliary. A reception was held in his honor at the evening at the residence of H. J. Strawn. He left for Calgary on Wednesday.
